NOTICE OF INTENT TO ENTER DEFAULT DECISION AND ORDER

Re: In the Matter of Patrick Gleason - FPPC No. 09/557

Dear Mr. Gleason:

Enclosed please find a courtesy copy of the Default Decision and Order, and accompanying Exhibit and attachments, in the above matter. The Fair Political Practices Commission ("Commission") will consider this matter at its public meeting on June 10, 2010, and decide whether to impose an administrative penalty in the amount of $2,000 or more against you.

You were previously served a Report in Support of a Finding of Probable Cause, commonly known as a probable cause report, advising you of your right to request a probable cause conference or submit a written response to the probable cause report. You did not request a probable cause conference, nor did you submit anything in writing for the Commission's Executive Director to consider in his determination of probable cause.

Following the issuance of a Report in Support of a Finding of Probable Cause, the Commission's Executive Director found probable cause that you committed one violation of the Political Reform Act¹ reporting provisions. Thereafter, the Executive Director issued an Accusation against you on the same violation. The Accusation was served by substituted service to Diane Gleason, your wife, on March 25, 2010. Under the law, you have, therefore, received adequate notice of these proceedings and the action filed against you. Under the Administrative Procedure Act², you were required to file a Notice of Defense within 15 days after service of the Accusation. You failed to file the Notice of Defense Form within that time. As such, your right to an administrative hearing on this matter has been forfeited, and you are in a default position.

At its public meeting on June 10, 2010, the Commission will consider an administrative penalty against you in the amount of $2,000. However, the Commission may impose up to a maximum penalty of $5,000 against you for your violation.

Following the issuance of the default order and imposition of the administrative penalty, we will commence legal proceedings to collect this fine, which may include converting the Commission's order to a court judgment. Please be advised that administrative penalties for violations of the Political Reform Act cannot be discharged in bankruptcy proceedings.

Our office will notify you regarding the disposition of this matter following the June 10, 2010, Commission meeting.

Sincerely,

Ty D. Moore
